Will be produced for the first time on MONDAY EVENING, June 27th.

The greatest Moral, Local, Sensation Drama ever witnessed in Washington, entitled BUSHWHACKERS OF THE POTOMAC!

Everything connected with this Life Drama has been prepared in the most magnificent style, and it will be presented with

NEW AND ELEGANT LOCAL SCENERY. FAMILIAR SCENES IN WASHINGTON,

LIFE-LIKE REPRESENTATIONS.

All of which have been minutely copied by the artist frem careful observation, and are therefore accurate copies of Washington city and its surroundings, and cannot fail to strike the beholder as being exact counterparts of the original.

The Costumes have been made similar to those worn by the parties to be represented, and in some cases have been, through strategy, procured from the persons themselves, thereby showing a determination to render the characters ersily recognized by the making the plot still worse. nized by all, thus making the plot still more ef-

The Machinery and Appointments are also com-plete in the minutest detail, and everything has been done which ingenuity and enterprise could devise, to make this play what it purports to be, a faithful representation of Life in the Capital. A full synopsis of incidents, scenery and cast of char-acters will appear shortly.

Remember next Monday, June 27th, the BUSHWHACKERS OF THE POTOMAC!

WHITE HOUSE, VA., June 21.—The enemy made a persistent though not very desperate attempt to capture the wagon trains at this point, belonging to Sheridan's cavalry corps. About 6% o'clock yesterday morning, they drove in our pickets with dismounted cavalry, when a heavy skirmish line was thrown out to meet them, which, with the aid of our hatto meet them, which, with the aid of our pat-teries, effectually checked their advance and teries, effectually checked their advance and designs. About 9 o'clock they opened with artillery, when the trains were ordered across the railroad bridge over the Pamunkey, on the road leading to West Point. There were between 600 and 700 wagons, loaded with stores and ammunition, which, with the cattle, were all safely crossed without the least disorder or accident. While waiting to cross, one of the sanitary wagons was struck with a shell and demolished, though fortunately without personal injury to any one. sonal injury to any one.

From a prisoner we learned the attacking party to be Hampton's cavalry, accompanied by four batteries. They kept up a brisk fire from the latter for five or six hours, but the accuracy of range from our gunboate and batteries prevented their taking position to ac-complish much damage, and, chagrined at their failure, they sullenly withdrew; but not a mo-ment too soon for their security, as our cavalry, Which had been momentarily expected, now b gan to arrive. It is supposed they intend to harass, if possible, our trains, when they move across to the James. Our cavalry this morning started in pursuit of the attacking party, but it is not likely they will succeed in overtaking them. FORTRESS MONROE, June 22.—The steamer Iolas arrived this morning early, from the White House, where she left at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

She reports that at 6 a. m. on the 20th inst. Gens. Fitzhugh Lee and Hampton made an attack by charging on our forces entrenched at the White House, and in command of General Abercrombie, which charge was repulsed and the enemy driven back. At the same time our gunboats Commodore Morse, Capt. Babcock, and two others, opened a heavy fire, shelling

At 7 o'clock, the enemy having succeeded in planting a battery of three guns in range, re-turned the fire upon our gunboats and land

This artillery duel was kept up until 12 o'clock noon, when the Commodore Morse threw a shell that exploded a caisson in the enemy's battery, causing great confusion among their men, and thereupon they retired, taking their guns with them. Our less was only three wounded, one mortally.

At 3 o'clock p. m., 20th, General Sheridan's t dvance guard arrived at the White Honse, and at five o'clock the General arrived with his command. Yesterday morning (21st) there was skir-mishing among the pickets, and a general en-gagement expected. General Getty arrived and relieved General Abercombie, who had been previously ordered to report to Washington for duty.

During this siege General Abercrombie received a dispatch from General Grant to hold his position at all hazards, till assistance arrived, which, by the aid of the gunboats, he succeeded in doing.

General Abercrombie arrived to-day, on his way for Washington, and will leave here to-night, via Baltimore.

The artillery fire on both sides was kept up, gradually diminishing, until 4 p. m. The enemy's loss was comparatively heavy.

Prisoners captured say the rebels mistook our gunboats for transports, and intended to cap-ture our troops at the White House before General Sheridan's command arrived.
The enemy's evident intention w General Abercrombie's command at White House, and thereby intercept General Sheridan's safe arrival there. They were defeated. FROM THE FRONT AT PETERSBURG.

Mortar Shells Thrown into the Camps of the Enemy-Speedy Resumption of Active Hostilities Anticipated-Visit of President Lincoln to Gen. Grant. [Dispatch to the Chronicle]

NEAR PETERSBURG, June 20.—The rebels have been unusually active along our entire front since the lifting of the morning haze. All day the patter of their balls over our breastworks has been continuous and monotonous. Dozens of men have fallen victims to the skill of their sharpshooters, while our marksmen are unable to retaliate as they might if the formation of the ground was not against them. Some are shot going for water, others fall on their way to the front carrying victuals to an their way to the front carrying victuals to an

Last night we planted some mortars on the left. Cannon shoot over the strong works of the enemy, and do no damage. Mortars, if properly poised, drop the shell immediately behind the works, and are more disastrons than a charge. Several shots were fired after dark, the burning fuse describing a beautiful parabela, and marking the course of the shell. Again quiet brooded over the two hosts. About midnight we were disturbed. Lee thought our left was leaving. He advanced his right, and drew forth a volley from the 5th corps. For five minutes the uproar was alarming, but it soon ceased when we proved our presence. In the morning we had an interesting artillery duel on the right by way of recreation. The rebels brought several batteries into play-one of 20-pounders, which they threw round shot and shell far over the house where was headquarters of 2d division, 6th corps. This lasted an hour. The 2d corps will be relieved to-night. One division of colored troops will take the place of Birney's division. Two days of quiet. It cannot last much longer. Bloody times will come again.

R. H. McBridge. Another Account. [Correspondence of the Associated Press.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC June 22.—Artillery firing on the right, and picker skirmishing at various points along the line occupied the day yesterday, resulting in the wounding of a few men, but causing no change in position. one of our batteries on the left for some time, when it opened in return, one of the shells exploding in the midst of the men at the rebel guns, and causing a cessation of firing on their Gen. Hancock is recovering from his indisposition, and expects to resume command of his corps in a few days.

Philadelphia Sanitary Fair. PHILADELPHIA, June 23 .- The Central Sanitary Fair was crowded to excess this evening, among the attractions being the visit of the Knights Templars of Washington. The vote on the sword stood, Meade 1,463 over Hancock, and McClellan 76 over Grant.

The fair will nominally close Saturday night. Monday and Tuesday next it will be thrown open at a low price of admission to all the departments. There is no doubt but that a million dollars will be raised and perhaps more for the Sani-tary Commission. The fair has been a decided success. New York Markets.

New York, June 23.—Gold was two hundred and twenty at noon. Wool sales, to the extent of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds of Ohio fleece, were made to day at one dollar. CONGRESSIONAL. IN THE SENATE yesterday— The House bill to repeal the fugitive slave bill came up as the special order.

Mr. Saulsbury moved the following as a substitute for the bill :

Stitute for the bill:

That no person held to service or labor in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation, though he be discharged from such labor, but shall be delivered up on claim to the party to whom such service or labor may be due, and Congress shall pass all necessary and proper laws for the rendition of all such persons. This was rejected. The bill subsequently passed by a vote of 27 to 12.
